1. REPRESENTATIVE PROGRAM

1.1 REPRESENTATIVE PROGRAM – General

- 1.1.1 Team management may consist of one (1) coach and two (2) managers or one (1) coach, one (1) assistant coach and one (1) manager or one (1) coach, one (1) co-coach and one (1) manager. The decision to have any combination will be the decision of the appointments panel. Nominees for these positions must be registered with an affiliated Club of Gosford Netball Association for the period of the appointment.
- 1.1.2 Squads will be named and the size to be determined by the standard of players available for selection and the selection panel recommendations.
- 1.1.3 Development teams may be selected in all age groups at the discretion of the selection panel.
- 1.1.4 A player who submits a written explanation prior to the time of selection, for their absence on selection day may be considered for selection into the squad for consideration by the Executive Committee.
  - 1.1.4.1. the written letter of explanation is to be addressed to the Association Secretary;
  - 1.1.4.2. a written reply may be given by the Association Secretary, as to the outcome.
- 1.1.5 All players who present themselves to squad or team selections are required to wear suitable attire preferably white T-shirt and black shorts. No club, association or representative sports uniforms are to be worn to squad or team selections.
- 1.1.6 If a squad member does not prove their worthiness or is injured or withdraws, that squad member may be substituted by another player, nominated by the selection panel.
- 1.1.7 Withdrawal from the team may result in the squad member being declared ineligible to stand for selection the following year. A decision in this case to be determined by the Executive Committee.
- 1.1.8 Players deemed medically unfit to participate prior to departure for State / State Age championship may not be permitted to travel or lodge with the team. A decision in this case to be determined by the Executive Committee.
- 1.1.9 If a player, who was a member of another Association representative program, relocates to a property address within the Association Boundaries, then the player may be considered for selection into a squad or representative team that has less than twelve (12) selected players. This is at the recommendation of the selection panel and approval by the Executive Committee.

1.2 REPRESENTATIVE PROGRAM – Players

- 1.2.1 Players must nominate in writing to the Association Secretary for consideration for appointment together with a list of their playing experience by the closing date as set out in the Association Calendar.
